

Lianne Landa Brooks

(305) 898-0828

Lianne@LLBHorsemanship.com • LLBHorsemanship.com

OBJECTIVE

To develop a career as an Equine Professional in young horse development, foundation training, and specialization in English sport (jumping and dressage) using the principles of natural horsemanship.

EDUCATION

University of Miami,

Bachelors in Business Administration, Entrepreneurship, May 2011

- Cum Laude, 3.7 GPA
- Dean's List: Fall '08, Fall '10, Fall '11
- Provost Honor Roll: Spring '08, Spring '09, Spring '10
- Member of Alpha Lambda Delta Honors Society
- Grand Prize Winner of the 2011 Business Plan Competition

Student of the Parelli Natural Horsemanship Program

2004 - Present

- Level 3 graduate, November 2011
- Completed and passed Fast Track course at the Ocala campus November 2011
- Apprentice under 3 star Parelli Professional and Horse Development Specialist Fawn Anderson February – April 2012

WORK EXPERIENCE

Cornerstone Horse Farm, College Grove, TN, 2011 –2012

Barn Manager, Horse Trainer, and Horsemanship Instructor, September 2011 – October 2012

- Managing the daily care of up to 16 horses.
- Starting and developing young horses for clients for a range of disciplines including trail riding, hunter under saddle and over fences, western pleasure, and speed games.
- Restarting difficult horses with issues such as bolting, bucking, spooking, rushing, and inverted top line.
- Teaching students, private, semi private and clinic formats, how to teach horses using the principles and techniques of natural horsemanship.
- Giving instruction in balanced riding and basics of jumping and dressage.
- Organizing and running the Cornerstone Home School Horsemanship Club where home school children ages 6 – 15 learned about safe horse care and handling as well as ground work techniques and riding.
- Horse training mentor to a select group of young apprentices.

Imperial Andalusian Farm, Miami, Florida 2010

Junior Assistant Trainer, February- July

- Developing young horses in classical dressage under Mary Beth Klock Perez, owner, breeder and head trainer.

SKILLS

- Young horse development and English sport specialization.
- Natural Horsemanship horse training and instruction.
- Petite stature allows for ability to ride/train ponies.